We turn to you for the purpose of presenting the services we perform in our technical Office.

Since 1994, we work in the sector of the construction as AZOTECNICA, offering technical and real estate services such as dispatch of technical architecture, all in the field of construction and associated services.

Currently and in constant evolution, we extend our expectations for the future and create AZOTECNICA 2.0 as a Launch pad to a new form of thinking and working on architecture and construction.

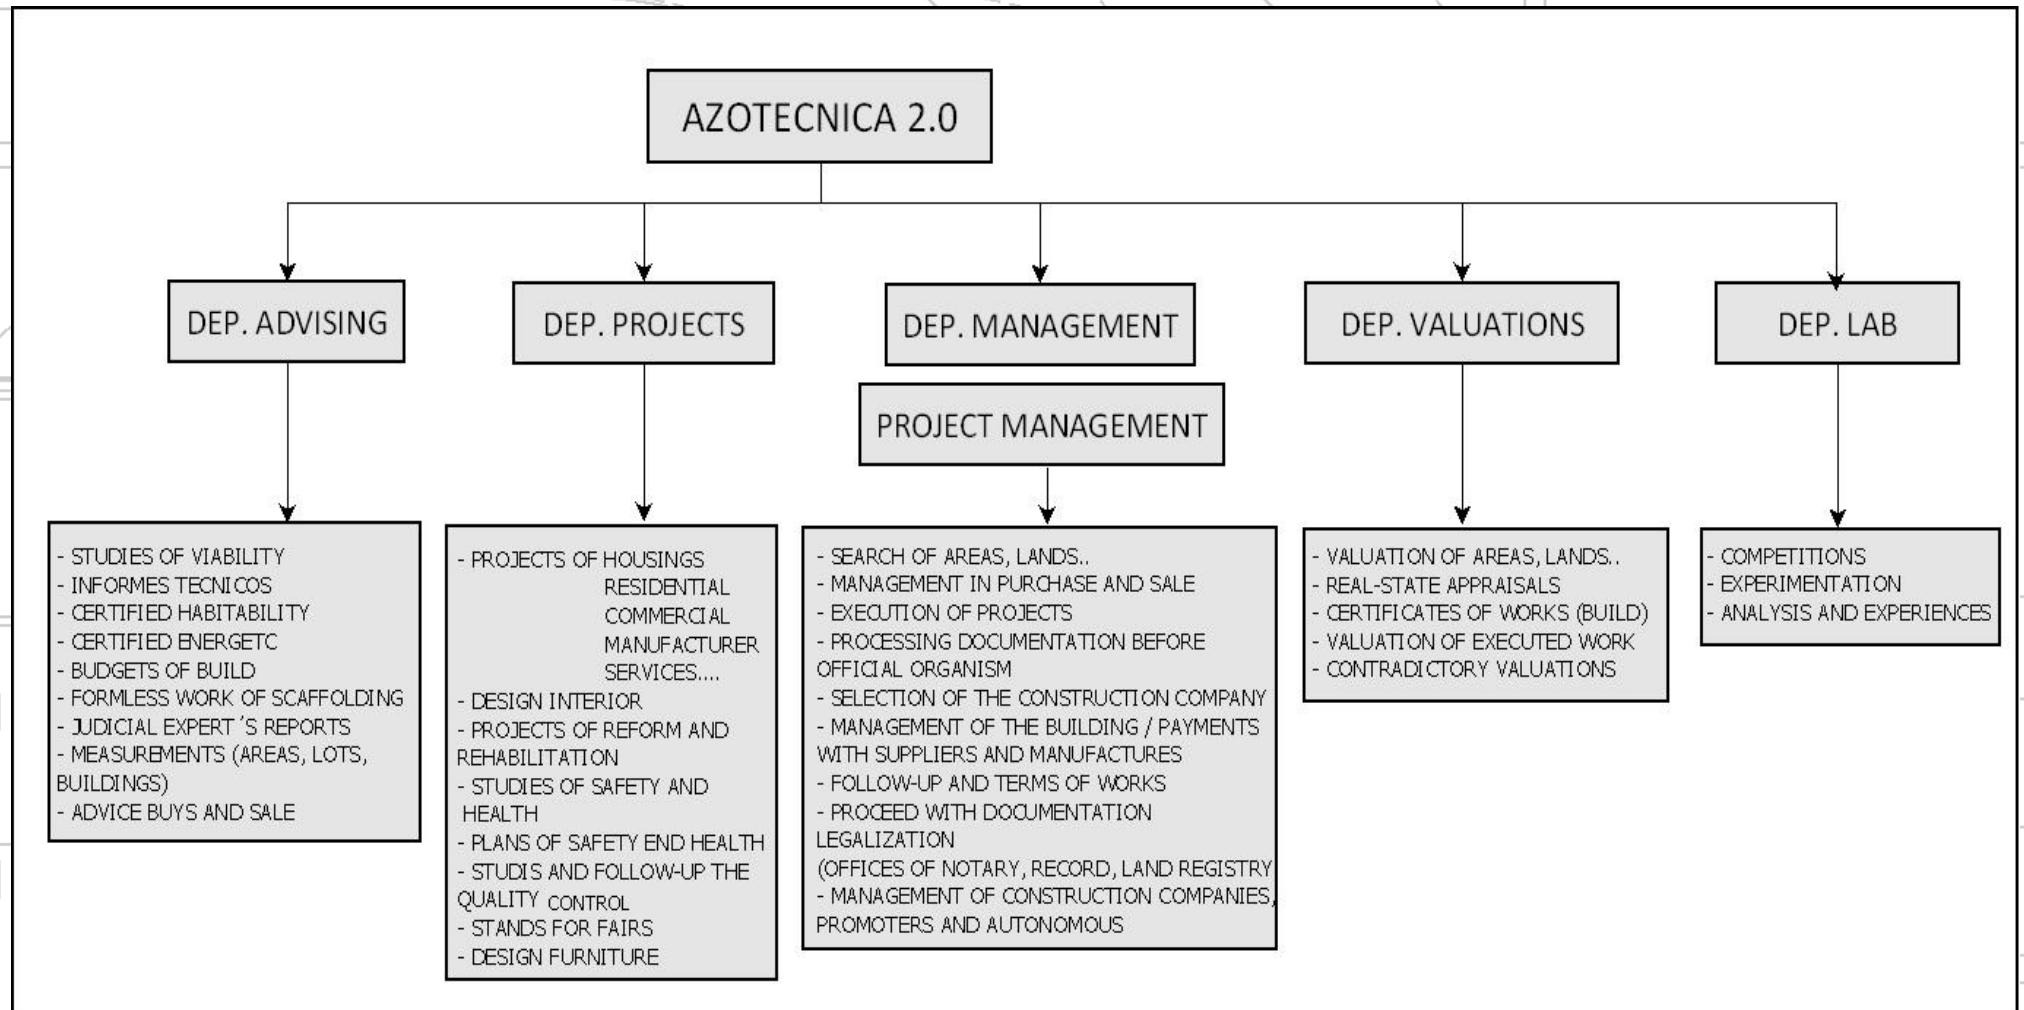

We want to be a benchmark ethical and professional, offering an effective and responsible work, adapting to the needs and wishes of our customers.

For this purpose we put at your disposal the structure of our Office and we offer for any consultation, advising and providing solutions in relation to management, construction process, procedures, legal, technical and economic as well as pathologies and valuations.

Our Office is divided into departments in each of them and depending on the type of work, we study the solution optimal in order to satisfy our customer, without sparing efforts in resolving any proposed topic.
 Thus the services we offer are the following:

T41
S.U. 8,60 m²
